Dear Mr. Eames:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA number GSA-2015-000067), dated October 17, 2014, in which you requested a copy of:

The respective report(s) mandated under the FACA § 6(b) which states any and all of President Obama's respective proposals for action or reasons for inaction with respect to any and all respective recommendations made to him by the following non-discretionary Presidential Federal advisory committees established by him under Executive Order (EO) so indicated:

State, Local Tribal, and Private Sector (SLTPS) Policy Advisory Committee
EO 13549 of August 18, 2010
Presidential Commission on Election Administration
EO 13639 of March 28, 2013

After a careful search of agency records for the requested information, the agency found no records responsive to your request.

Since GSA does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. However, you have the right to appeal the adequacy of GSA's search. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reason(s) why you believe GSA should have responsive records.
